Little House on The Praire

Laura Ingalls Wilder

The story is about a family that moves to a new town. They work hard to make this new place as their home. There they learn about survival skills, friendships and the importance of family values. I like this book because I learn the importance of honesty, hard work, team work and the importance of family values. The main characters for this story are Laura, father, mother, Mary and Baby Carrie. I like Laura the most because she is very brilliant and likes to explore to know many new things. This story is a classic story that can view us the era of late 60th with traditional lifestyle in a county house.

Good morning, everyone. I would like to inform all of you that our school will be organising a Green House Programme to create awareness among the pupils about the need to protect our forests and wildlife as a part of the World Wildlife Day celebrations on this coming 23rd July at the school hall from 8.00 a.m. until 1.00 p.m. All pupils are welcome to participate in several activities such as colouring contest, poetry competition and many more. Remember! Get the entry form from me to register your name. If you need more information about this programme, you may see me at the staffroom at 2.00 p.m. until 3.00 p.m. during recess. Thank you.

Rania : Aisyah, do you want to join this programme?

Aisyah : Of course. I'll take part in the colouring contest. How about you?

Rania : Me too. Let's go and get the entry form from Mr Rahman now.

Aisyah : Oh! It means we need to compete with each other.

Aisyah : Let's have a fair fight, and may the best man win.

Rania : You're right! Let's go now to get the form.

Aisyah : Yes. Let's go.
